- Theme Free Style – Relativity, originality
- President's Choice – Madam President's favorite

Rules:

1. Dimensions are to be no more than 24 x 24 x 12
2. Each display must contain the name, Unit #, District # and the number of Poppies used. This information must not be visible when viewing the display; it must be placed on the back/underside of the display.
3. A panel of 5 judges will judge all displays with the exception of the President's Choice. President's Choice will be judged solely by the Department President.
4. All displays must be checked in to the Department Office at the Wyndham Hotel no later than 6:00 pm on Wednesday, June 22
5. If a Cross is used, then you must also use the Star of David
6. All forms of craft material may be used

Awards

President's Theme and Free Style will be awarded First, Second and Third place. Second and Third place will receive Citations and token of appreciation.

President's Choice will have only one winner with a Citation and token of appreciation.

The Department will not assume responsibility for the returning of Convention Poppy Displays. It will be the responsibility of the individual to pick up their Poppy Display at the close of the Department Convention.
