April 2022

Ice Cream Parlors:

Here's hoping that you all have had a good junior year and will be reporting on all that our juniors have accomplished this year.

1. Should a junior be accompanying you to convention, please let me know. The juniors have been invited to be pages. The dress code for this will be white capris and beach themed t-shirts. Please contact me by May 1 so that the Convention Committee can have an accurate count.
2. The Junior Conference Committee is considering having a mini-Junior Conference on Thursday following the Memorial Service. We would like to have at least ten participants. Again, please let me know by May 1.

This year has been hard on all of us. We need to get our Juniors up and moving. Remember they are our future!

"The single biggest way to impact an organization is to focus on leadership development. There is almost no limit to the potential of an organization that recruits good people, raises them up as leaders and continually develops them."
